KNOXVILLE NOTES.

The different courts of Calanthe held their fourteenth annual session at the Odd Fellows Hall, under supervision of its Grand Worthy Councillor, Dr. R. F. Boyd. Each court of the state was largely represented, this being the largest session that has ever convened.

Dr. and Mrs. Townsend, of Nashville, are the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Watkins.

The delegates have been royally treated by the citizens of Knoxville. There was an entertainment Tuesday night given in their honor; on Wednesday night they were given a grand banquet; on Thursday night a farewell banquet.

There were thirty who were given Grand Court degree and forty-eight credentials reported.

Miss Estella Higgason, of Somerville, is the guest of Mrs. Franklin, of 713 Nelson street.

Messrs. Gilbert White, P. T. Turner and Madams Climmie White, M. A. Turner, M. E. Perry, Misses Emma L. Morrison and Ladye Stringer, of Nashville, are visiting here this week. This party on its way home will stop over in Chattanooga, and go up the mountain.

Mr. Franklin, of 713 Nelson street, who has been very sick for the past month, is now convalescing.

Dr. Clifford Thomas, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, was buried last Thursday after a short illness.

DR. WICKHAM IN SOUTH CAROLINA.

Information comes from Charleston, S. C., under date of July 5, that Dr. Chas. B. Wickham, of the class of 1907, Meharry Medical College, is permanently located in the hospital and training school for nurses in that aristocratic city. Dr. Wickham has been located in New Orleans, La., where he has had an excellent practice since finishing and since passing the state board. Mr. H. A. Boyd, of the Globe force, was in New Orleans June 26-30, attending the Sunday School Congress, and was the guest of Dr. Wickham. It was learned then that several excellent offers had been made to him—one at Savannah, Ga., and another at Charleston, but the doctor told the Globe man that of the two offers he had practically decided to accept the one in Charleston, as with this offer came the excellent berth of resident physician. The hospital is one of the best in the South. Dr. A. C. McClelland is surgeon-in-charge, while Dr. W. D. Crum attends the medical nursing. In other words the institution has all the modern conveniences; it is large, airy, neat, comfortable and perfectly clean. A letter from the doctor states that he is in "Charleston by the sea," and asks that the Globe be sent to him regularly.

LOCAL W. C. T. U. WILL MEET.

There will be an interesting meeting of all the city organizations of the World's Christian Temperance Union at the Howard Congregational Church, Sunday afternoon. The meeting is for the purpose of making final arrangements for the state convention which will be held in Chattanooga, Tenn., the latter part of next week, and to hear a report from Mrs. V. W. Broughton, the state president, who has just returned from abroad. She has consented to deliver one of her lectures at this meeting. The delegates for the state convention have also been elected, but they are expected to get further instructions Sunday.
